Unfinished Business	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Discussion of the transportation study- The district is still gathering data. The district will need 63 buses made up of large and small buses. The district has met with the company who would lease these buses. The district also met with other districts to get their input on providing in-house transportation. Woodland recommended we not do it. Big Hollow and Fremont are happy with their decisions. They shared that the bus drivers become a part of the district staff. The district is looking where to house the buses and costs for walkie talkies. Two of the biggest challenges will be where to park them and gas. The district feels there would be a huge cost savings on transportation for after school activities. The district will investigate any possible union issues down the road, if a decision is made to proceed with in-house transportation. The district is also waiting on transportation increases from Durham.</li> </ul>
New Business	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Review of the adequacy dollars and the district priorities- This topic was postponed until the November 15th Board meeting.</li> <li>• Discussion of the Point of Sales systems- Chris Bobek shared that the district is looking at different vendors. Implementation is key and vendors suggest we begin in February or March. The POS system would be used for lunch purchases. Chris shared that reporting is very quick with all of the vendors. He is waiting on pricing and will bring his recommendation back to the Board.</li> </ul>
Topics for Future Agenda Items	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>•Adequacy dollars and district priorities</li> <li>•Technology purchase for Park Campus</li> <li>•Preliminary Tax Levy Presentation</li> <li>•Certified and PSRP Contracts</li> <li>•Administration Contracts</li> <li>•Non-Union salary increases</li> </ul>
